

Bookmark Idea

Things We Can Do to Become Better Readers
from a class of new readers

Read, read, read.

Read something they want to read.

Have self confidence that they can read.

Have goals for reading.

Study, study, study.

Spell, spell, spell.

Listen to each other.

Be part of a learning team.

Take a chance. You will probably win.

Read everything around us.

Practice on your own.

Repeat, repeat, repeat.

Come to class.

Concentrate on what we do not know instead of what we already know.

Make sure that endings are on our words. If there is an "s" then we must make sure that we pronounce it. This will mark us as educated people.

From a class of eight new readers, EA Adult April, 1997